Time

Fridays 1:00PM—4:15PM

Description

Our study of Ezekiel and Daniel will delve into these major prophets as we consider historical, grammatical, linguistic, and theological context. By the end of the semester, students should have a working knowledge of the content, meaning, and genre considerations of Ezekiel and Daniel.

Course Objectives and Requirements

To provide the student with a working knowledge of Ezekiel and Daniel through lecture, discussion, and self-guided study. By the end of the semester the student should be able to demonstrate their knowledge of these God-breathed prophetic books.

Textbooks and Materials

The Bible and The Major Prophets (Old Testament Survey) by James E Smith

Assignments

- The student is expected to memorize the following verses (in the ESV, NKJ, KJV, ASV or NASB): Ezekiel 2:6-7; 3:17-18; 5:5-8; 16:62-63; 18:20, 32; 36:24-27; Daniel 1:8; 3:16-18; 6:10; 7:13-14; 12:2-3 The memory verses are not cumulative; are fill-in-the-blank.
- There will be an in-class assignment for the class session on August, 19. Forest will be out of town but will not leave you as orphans
- There will be a mid-term test and final test to demonstrate the student's knowledge of the class material. Possible test questions will be reviewed before the test.
